THE NEW BRUNSWICK SCOTTISH JOURNAL

The New Brunswick Scottish Journal is published four times per year, and is only available to Association members.

It contains regular features and columnists, and varying articles on cultural events and happenings of the Scottish community throughout New Brunswick, across Canada and around the world.

Find delicious Scottish recipes, read about the lives of interesting men and women from the "Famous Scots" column, learn about Celtic art and design, or discover your clan history or family lineage. Enjoy something new in every edition! The Journal is packed full of information on "all things Scottish".
